

Colorado Farm to Table's New Membership and Partnership Program

Grow More. Give More. Feed More

Colorado Farm to Table is proud to launch its new membership and partnership program, Harvest Circle! We invite individuals, families and organizations to become part of a dedicated community of changemakers revolutionising how Colorado fights hunger.

HARVEST CIRCLE: THE UNIFIED VISION

Colorado Farm to Table is a volunteer-powered nonprofit farm in Salida that grows fresh produce for distribution to food banks throughout Colorado. Every row we plant feeds neighbors in need. Harvest Circle will help further advance our mission to deliver fresh vegetables to families across Colorado who struggle with food insecurity.

The collective generosity of Harvest Circle participants will expand our capacity to provide healthy meals: for children who need proper nutrition to succeed in school, seniors on fixed incomes, and households making impossible trade-offs between housing and groceries.

THE COLORADO HUNGER PROBLEM

THE STARK REALITY

-  1 in 8 Coloradans face food insecurity—that's more than 660,000 people
-  1 in 7 Colorado children experience hunger—180,000+ kids
-  Every Colorado county has families struggling to afford food
-  Middle-income families struggle too: 22% earning $60-90K can't afford enough food

WHEN CHILDREN DON'T EAT, THEY CAN'T LEARN

-  Hungry children score lower on math and reading tests
-  Food-insecure students are twice as likely to repeat a grade
-  Proper nutrition can increase IQ by up to 18 points
-  Well-fed children have 31% better attendance rates
